

HOW TO PASS RESPONSE ESSAYS (1.3, 1.4, 1.5)

- Read and choose your question carefully and take a few minutes to plan your answer
- Include the title and author / director in your intro. Underline the title
- Rephrase both parts of the qn. in your intro
- Write the number of the question you are answering on your paper
- Answer both parts of the question, e.g: both the describe and explain parts.
- Include evidence (quotes and/or detail) to back up your points
- Write at least 200 words of relevant material – do not stop at this if you have more time!

HOW TO GET TO MERIT AND EXCELLENCE

- Back up your points with more than one relevant example per paragraph
- Make links to the wider themes in the text
- Appreciate the author's use of techniques such as characterisation, dialogue and the particular language used
- Show you are aware of the author's overall purpose and their message to readers

HOW TO PASS RESPONSE ESSAYS (1.3, 1.4, 1.5)

- Read and choose your question carefully and take a few minutes to plan your answer
- Include the title and author / director in your intro. Underline the title
- Rephrase both parts of the qn. in your intro
- Write the number of the question you are answering on your paper
- Answer both parts of the question, e.g: both the describe and explain parts.
- Include evidence (quotes and/or detail) to back up your points
- Write at least 200 words of relevant material – do not stop at this if you have more time!

HOW TO GET TO MERIT AND EXCELLENCE

- Back up your points with more than one relevant example per paragraph
- Make links to the wider themes in the text
- Appreciate the author's use of techniques such as characterisation, dialogue and the particular language used
- Show you are aware of the author's overall purpose and their message to readers

HOW TO PASS RESPONSE ESSAYS (1.3, 1.4, 1.5)

- Read and choose your question carefully and take a few minutes to plan your answer
- Include the title and author / director in your intro. Underline the title
- Rephrase both parts of the qn. in your intro
- Write the number of the question you are answering on your paper
- Answer both parts of the question, e.g: both the describe and explain parts.
- Include evidence (quotes and/or detail) to back up your points
- Write at least 200 words of relevant material – do not stop at this if you have more time!

HOW TO GET TO MERIT AND EXCELLENCE

- Back up your points with more than one relevant example per paragraph
- Make links to the wider themes in the text
- Appreciate the author's use of techniques such as characterisation, dialogue and the particular language used
- Show you are aware of the author's overall purpose and their message to readers

HOW TO PASS RESPONSE ESSAYS (1.3, 1.4, 1.5)

- Read and choose your question carefully and take a few minutes to plan your answer
- Include the title and author / director in your intro. Underline the title
- Rephrase both parts of the qn. in your intro
- Write the number of the question you are answering on your paper
- Answer both parts of the question, e.g: both the describe and explain parts.
- Include evidence (quotes and/or detail) to back up your points
- Write at least 200 words of relevant material – do not stop at this if you have more time!

HOW TO GET TO MERIT AND EXCELLENCE

- Back up your points with more than one relevant example per paragraph
- Make links to the wider themes in the text
- Appreciate the author's use of techniques such as characterisation, dialogue and the particular language used
- Show you are aware of the author's overall purpose and their message to readers